

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Headteachers, Senior Leaders, SMSC and PSHE
Coordinators, Governors, Local Authority Officers, Multi Academy Trusts, Teaching Schools, SACRE members

VENUES

04/11/2015 LEICESTER

School Development Support Agency, Alliance House,
6 Bishop Street, Leicester, LE1 6AF

17/11/2015 BIRMINGHAM

Services for Education, Warwick House, 10 Edward Street,
Birmingham, B1 2RX

18/11/2015 MANCHESTER

Burnage Academy for Boys, Burnage Lane, Manchester,
M19 1ER

Developing 'British' Values: Towards the Compassionate School

SPEAKERS

|                     |              |
|---------------------|--------------|
| Prof. Mick Waters   | (all venues) |
| Maurice Irfan Coles | (all venues) |
| Dr John Lloyd       | (Leicester)  |
| Gilroy Brown        | (Birmingham) |
| Dr Tamara Russell   | (Manchester) |

CONFERENCE AIMS

- explore and develop the vision for creating a compassionate school within the context of 'British' values
- provide the strategic imperatives for change
- explore compassion's links with SMSC, PSHE and mindfulness
- outline a compassionate curriculum
- launch the book, 'Towards the Compassionate School: From Golden Rule to Golden Thread'

PROGRAMME

- 09:15 ..... Registration and light refreshments
- 09:45 ..... Welcome and introduction
- 09:55 ..... Compassion: The Supreme 'British' Value by Maurice Irfan Coles
- 10:30 ..... Highlights from a chapter of the book presented by one of the other authors
- 11:00 ..... Break
- 11:20 ..... Towards a world-class compassionate curriculum by Prof. Mick Waters
- 12:10 ..... The way forward – what do schools want?
- 12:30 ..... Close

BOOK ONLINE AT

www.coedfoundation.org.uk

Places are limited at each venue and will be offered on a first come, first served basis.

Conference fee £90 per delegate; this includes a signed copy of the book, 'Towards the Compassionate School: From Golden Rule to Golden Thread'.